1. Those who dwell in the shel - ter of the Lord will find
 2. Those who make their - dwel - ling with the Lord are pro -

- safe - ty with - in His wing. God, my re - fuge, my for - tress and my shield! All my
 - tec - ted through - out their days. Though a thou - sand may per - ish at my side, yet no trust, I place in You. I will not fear the night, the pes - ti - lence that stalks in the harm will come my way. God's an - gels will be there, and they will lift me up and pro -

- dark - ness. With You at my side, what can harm me? I
 - tect me! With God at my side, what can harm me? I call up - on Your name, and You hear me. I will trust in You, my Sal - va - tion. My call up - on my Lord, and He hears me. I will trust the Lord, my Sal - va - tion. My
