

I Will Praise You Lord (Psalm 111)

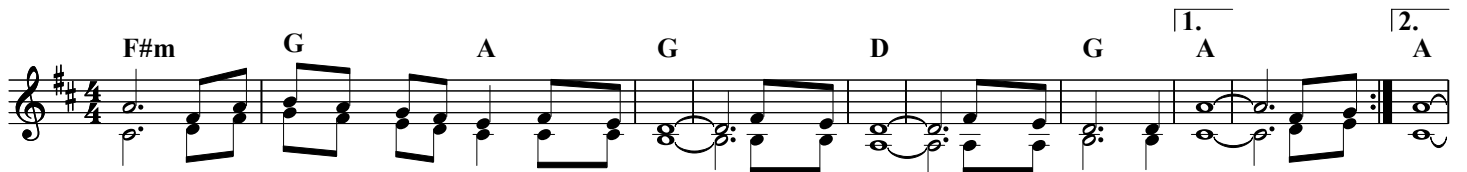

Stephen Pearson

1,3. I will praise You, Lord. I will praise You with my heart. I will praise You, Lord, and pro-
2. Oh, how gra - cious, Lord, how com - pas - sion - ate are You! You at - tend our needs, and Your

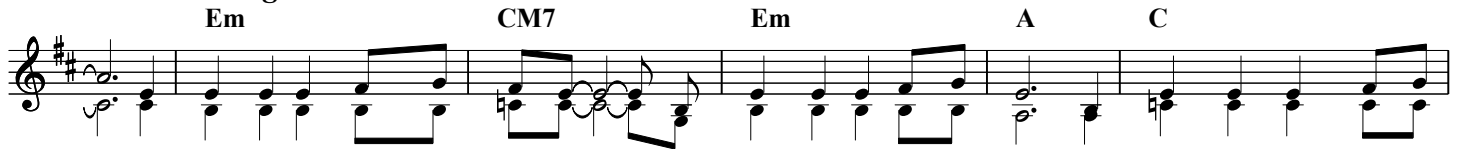

- claim how great Thou art. Lord, how great Thy works. How ma - jes - tic are Thy deeds. And Thy right - eous-word is ev - er true. In Your works, O Lord, You are faith - ful, You are just. And Your Word, O

- ness will en - dure e - ter - nal - ly. Praise the Lord. Praise the Lord. Praise the Lord, our God! (Oh, how)
Lord: in its pre - cepts we can trust! Fear the Lord. Fear the Lord. Fear the Lord, our God!

Bridge

The fear of God brings us wis - dom. The faith - ful fol - low His Law. He gives to us un - der-(Alt.: To us, God grants His re-

God. Our God!
- stand - ing — Praise to God! (I will)
- demp - tion: Great our God!)